Take advantage of modern real estate investments powered by blockchain.

Investing in real estate thus also opens up to smaller investors, students and the general public.

Amantius represents a revolution in investing in real estate and in an innovative way through blockchain technology and unmistakable NFT tokens. Thanks to this new technology, it is possible to divide the property ownership into smaller parts and among several owners through non-fungible tokens.

Non-fungible tokens, known by the abbreviation NFT, represent digital assets recorded on the blockchain.
